Police conducting exercises at WeGo facility Metro Nashville Police to hold educational training for officers in Madison

NASHVILLE – As part of an ongoing partnership with the Metro Nashville Police Department (MNPD), WeGo Public Transit will help to facilitate a training exercise on Thursday, October 11 and Friday, October 12 at the agency's Myatt Drive administrative offices in Madison, next door to the MNPD Madison Precinct.

During the hours of 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. both days, MNPD officers will be on-site inside the building and onboard a bus, conducting training activities pursuant to navigating hostage and hostage negotiation situations.

Passersby may see police activity taking place at the WeGo Myatt offices, but it will be part of the training process.
