

SERVICE ADVISORY

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:
March 29, 2021

WeGo to run buses along Star train route on Tuesday Due to continued clean-up efforts, regular train will not operate

NASHVILLE – Due to an excess of debris along the tracks, WeGo Public Transit will operate buses between WeGo Star stations on Tuesday, March 30, 2021, to accommodate train passengers instead of its regular train service. There will be no service to Martha Station. Riders who normally board at Martha are encouraged to board at Hamilton Springs or Mt. Juliet.

Separate bus routes will operate for Wilson and Davidson County riders.

For Wilson County riders, a bus will depart Lebanon at 6 a.m., stop at Hamilton Springs at 6:20 a.m., Mt. Juliet at 6:45 a.m. and arrive at Riverfront at approximately 7:15 a.m. In the afternoon, a bus will depart Riverfront Station at 5:10 p.m. and stop at the Mt. Juliet, Hamilton Springs, and Lebanon stations.

For Davidson County riders, bus will depart from Hermitage Station at 6:09 a.m., stop at Donelson at 6:16 a.m. A second bus will depart from Hermitage Station at 7:04 a.m., stop at Donelson Station at 7:11 a.m. In the afternoon, passengers traveling to Donelson or Hermitage may catch the 4:23 p.m. route 6 Lebanon Pike bus. Another bus will depart Riverfront Station at 5:10 p.m. and travel to Donelson and Hermitage stations.

The Route 93 Star West End Shuttle will be timed to meet all riders at Riverfront.

Clean-up is continuing along the tracks, and regular train service will resume once the tracks are clear.
